Crl. M.A.No. 4504/2020 (for exemption)

Exemption allowed subject to just exceptions.

The application stands disposed of.

CRL.M.C. 1156/2020

1. This is a petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India read with Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No. 466/2015, under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC registered at Police Station- Bindapur, District South-West, Delhi, and all proceedings emanating therefrom.

2. Issue notice. Learned counsel for the State, who appears on advance notice, accepts notice. Respondent No.2 appears in person and accepts notice.

3. The brief facts of the case are that the petitioner No.1 and respondent No.2 got married on 25.04.2014 according to Hindu rites and ceremonies and they lived together as wife and husband with each other. After the marriage, some disputes and differences arose between them. On 01.04.2015, the respondent No.2 got the above said FIR registered against the petitioners for causing cruelties and demand of dowry.

4. Counsel for the petitioners submits that during the pendency of the trial, the parties have settled the matter amicably before the Counselling Cell, Family Courts, in terms of the settlement dated 09.01.2019. Copy of the same is placed on record. Accordingly, the marriage of the petitioner no.1 and respondent no.2 has already been dissolved by decree of divorce with mutual consent of the parties vide order dated 14.05.2019 passed by Court of Sh. B.R. Kedia, Principal Judge, Family Courts, South-West District, Dwarka, Delhi. Copy of the decree of divorce is placed on record.

5. Respondent No.2 is present in Court today and she has been identified by the IO. The respondent No.2 admits that she has settled the matter amicably with the petitioners. She further submits that the settlement/compromise has taken place voluntarily, without any force, pressure or coercion. As per settlement, the DD No. 182721 dated 15.02.2020 of Rs.1,00,000/- has been handed over to the respondent No.2 in the Court today. Respondent No.2 submits that nothing remains to be adjudicated further between them and she has no objection if the FIR in question is quashed.

6. Learned counsel for the State submits that in view of the settlement between the parties, the State has no objection if the FIR in question be quashed.

7. Keeping in view the above facts and circumstances, since the matter has been amicably settled between the parties, no useful purpose will be served by keeping the case pending. It will be nothing but abuse of the process of law. Consequentially, FIR No. 466/2015, under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC registered at Police Station- Binda Pur, District South-West, Delhi, and the proceedings emanating therefrom shall stand quashed.

8. The present petition stands disposed of accordingly. Dasti.
