3. Learned counsel named above accepts notice on behalf of respondent no. 1.
4. The case was passed over for the learned counsel for the R-1 to obtain instructions. Having done so, Mr. Amit Bansal, learned counsel for the Board, states that considering the extraordinary circumstances of the petitioner, which constrained her from taking the Board Examination for English Core subject, her case has been reviewed; and in terms of the Board's letter dated 22.06.2020, her marks shall be recomputed within the next 2 days and a fresh marksheet will be issued to her. “ 7... (c) For students who have appeared in the examinations in only three subjects the average of the marks obtained in the best two performing subjects will be awarded in the subjects whose examinations have not been conducted.”

5. The highest marks obtained by the petitioner in two subjects, Psychology and Economics, are 81 and 76 respectively. In effect, she would be awarded the average of the two i.e. 78.5 in English Core.
