CONT.CAS(C) 33/2020 & CM APPL. 1585/2020 (delay in re-filing of the petition)

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that an SLP has been preferred against the order allegedly violated and notice thereon has already been issued. It is not disputed on behalf of the petitioner.

Taking note of the totality of facts and circumstances, the contempt petition with CM APPL. 1585/2020 is disposed of with liberty reserved to the petitioner to approach this Court afresh if cause of action survives after the disposal of the SLP.
