Order

04/12/2020

1. Present contempt petition has been preferred alleging that while handing over the possession, the contemnors have taken away FDRs and furnitures & fixtures.

2. Having heard Mr. Arpit Bhoot and upon perusal of the pleadings, this Court is of the firm view that the contempt jurisdiction cannot be exercised for the allegations levelled in the present contempt petition, particularly when possession of the property has been handed over.

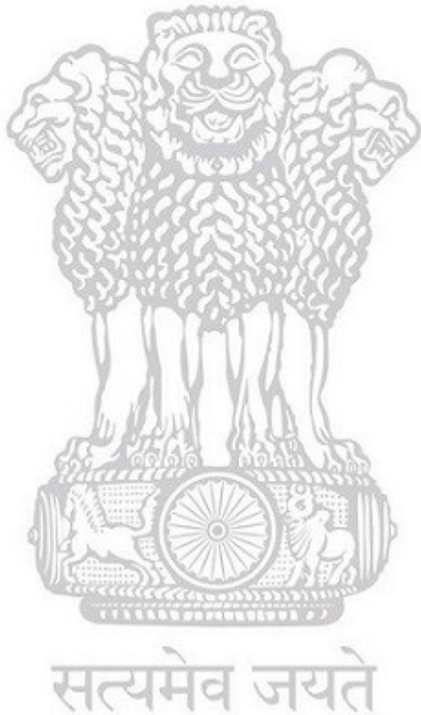

3. The contempt petition is, therefore, dismissed.

4. Petitioner, if so advised, will be free to take up the issue before the competent Court or by way of launching criminal proceedings against the respondents.
