In wake of onslaught of COVID-19, lawyers have been advised to refrain from coming to the Courts.

Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the material available on record.

The petitioner has been arrested in connection with FIR No.131/2020 of Police Station Talwda, District Hanumangarh for the offence punishable under Sections 8/22, 29 of the NDPS Act. He has preferred this bail application under Section 439 Cr.P.C.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the contraband in question is below commercial quantity. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that charge-sheet has been filed in this case and there is one previous antecedent of N.D.P.S. law.

Learned P.P. is not in a position to refute the above position.

Having regard to the totality of the facts and circumstances of the case as also the fact that conclusion of the proceedings is likely to take some time but without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this Court deems it just and proper to grant bail to the accused petitioner under Section 439 Cr.P.C.

Accordingly, this bail application filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C. is allowed and it is directed that petitioner Veeru Singh S/o Gyan Singh shall be released on bail in connection with FIR No.131/2020 of Police Station Talwda, District Hanumangarh provided he executes a personal bond in a sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sound and solvent sureties of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of learned trial court for his appearance before that court on each and every date of hearing and whenever called upon to do so till the completion of the trial.
