CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VIKASH JAIN

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 27-10-2021

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the opposite parties.

2. The present review petition has been filed against the order dated 09.10.2018 passed in C.W.J.C. No. 21605 of 2013.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that through inadvertence, the petitioner's representations which had been filed before the concerned authority (Annexure-5 series) could not be brought to the notice of this Court. In that view of the matter, the writ petition was disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to seek redressal of her grievance by way of statutory remedy available in accordance with law. It is submitted that despite these representations being filed before the authority, no action is being taken and the representations are still pending.

4. After some arguments, learned counsel for the petitioner fairly accepts that the grievance now sought to be raised constitutes a fresh cause of action and cannot be treated as a ground for review. As such, he seeks permission to withdraw the review petition with liberty to file a fresh writ petition as and when the occasion may arise.

5. The review petition is accordingly dismissed as withdrawn with the aforesaid liberty.
