CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY
ORAL ORDER

3 09-09-2021 Heard learned counsel for the parties through video conferencing.

The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered under sections 302 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the prosecution case, it is stated by the informant that she received the news of the death/murder of her brother through her sister's son. It is further stated that on reaching the place of occurrence it appeared that her brother had been killed, his body had turned black and there was wire of dish around his neck. It is further stated that the relationship between her deceased brother and his wife were not good. His wife was having an affair with her cousin brother-in-law. She is convinced that her brother had been murdered.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case. She happens to be the unfortunate widow of the deceased. The allegations levelled in the F.I.R. are false and concocted. There is no material against the petitioner except the unsubstantiated suspicion raised by the informant in the F.I.R. There are no eye witness to the occurrence. The petitioner who is a lady is in custody since 6.8.2020, has no criminal antecedent and chargesheet has been submitted in the case.

Heard learned A.P.P. for the State.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the material that has transpired in course of investigation together with the period in custody, the Court directs the petitioner to be enlarged on bail in connection with Arwal P.S. Case no. 186 of 2020 on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/ (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Additional District and Sessions Judge-VII, Jehanabad.
