Heard learned counsel for the applicant. He submits that almost all co-accused are released on bail. Some of them are attributed more serious role than the applicant. He further that submits those bail orders are at Annexure-2 to this application.

Learned APP opposed the bail application by contending that the offences are serious.

I have considered the submissions so advanced.

According to the prosecution case, accused persons including the present applicant formed an unlawful assembly with common object of committing crime and in that process they attempted to commit murder of the first informant.

Firearms are attributed to them.

So far as the applicant is concerned, iron rod and gaddal is attributed to him.

As co-accused with serious role are already released on bail, and hence, the following order:-

The application is allowed.
