CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY
ORAL ORDER

4 23-11-2021 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered under section 307 and other sections of the Indian Penal Code to which section 302 of the Indian Penal Code was added subsequently.

As per the prosecution case, it is stated by the informant that the four named accused persons including the petitioner herein poured petrol on him and lighted him as a result of which he got burnt.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the allegations as levelled in the F.I.R. are false and concocted. There is no explanation for the delay of four days in lodging of the F.I.R. Even from the narration of the F.I.R., it is not expected that the informant could see the accused persons.

The petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case due to oblique reasons. The petitioner who has no criminal antecedent is in custody since 2.1.2020.

The application for bail is opposed by learned A.P.P. for the State who submits that subsequently in course of treatment, the informant died. He has taken the name of this petitioner along with others and the inquest report supports the allegations made in the F.I.R.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the facts of the case together with the contents of the material that has transpired in course of investigation, the Court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail and the application is rejected.

Learned trial court is directed to expedite the trial.
