ORAL ORDER

3 09-03-2021 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in Bhabhua
P.S. Case No. 171 of 2019 registered under Sections 341, 323, 386, 504, 506 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The prosecution allegation, in short, is that the accused persons demanded extortion money on the gun point.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioner that there is no allegation of tampering of witnesses alleged against the petitioner. The petitioner has falsely been implicated in the present case due to oblique reasons. There is enmity between the parties and for the said reason, present false case has been instituted against the petitioner. The witnesses who have supported the allegation are interested witnesses at the instance of the informant. They have made such allegation of extortion against the petitioner.

On behalf of the State, it is submitted that the petitioner is named in the F.I.R. Hence, it is not a case for grant of anticipatory bail.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. The same is rejected. If the petitioner surrenders in the Court below and prays for regular bail, the same shall be considered on its own merit without being prejudiced by this order and will be disposed of preferably on the same day.
