CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

2 10-02-2021 Heard both sides.

The show-cause is filed stating that necessary order has already been passed to make payment of retiral dues of the petitioner. Pension of the petitioner has also been fixed and the Accountant General issued authority slip with regard to pension, gratuity and leave encashment.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the payment is yet to be made.

Having considered the facts aforesaid, I find that the order has been substantially complied with. The respondents are directed to make payment of all retiral dues to the petitioner within two weeks from the date of this order, if any amount is lying due.

Accordingly, the M.J.C. petition is disposed of.
