Petitioner has prayed for the following relief(s):

“For issuance of writ/writs, direction/directions to the respondents not to construct boundary wall covering under the survey plot No.-141 under Thana No.-59 Khata No.- 57 Area 33 dismil at Mauza- Pakri P.s-Punpun District- Patna which is recorded as Pyne (Nahar) in survey Khatiyan as well as on spot also and also direct the respondents not to construct any house on western portion over said plot No.-141 which will cause obstruction of in smooth functioning of vehicles and said plot is being used as Pyne (Nahar) to discharge the waste water of four hundred houses at Mohalla – Pakri P.s- Punpun District- Patna which will cause water logging in the Mohalla AND/OR pass such other order or orders as your lordship may deem fit and proper.”

Shri Pawan Kumar, learned counsel for the State, under instruction from the concerned B.D.O. and C.O., Respondent No. 7 and 8, states that the proposal for constructing the boundary wall has been withdrawn, resultantly, there would be no obstruction of free flow of water to the drain.

Statement accepted and taken on record.

In view of the same, we find the present petition to have become infructuous and is accordingly disposed of, reserving liberty to the petitioner to agitate the surviving issues before the appropriate authority, if so required and desired.

Interlocutory application, if any, shall also stand disposed of.
