Prosecutor for the state through video conferencing.

2. Petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with

Siwan Mahila PS Case No. 35/2020 registered for the offence punishable under Sections 341, 323, 354, 379 of the IPC.

3. The allegation, as per FIR, is that the petitioner entered into the house of the informant and started touching her body and when she raised alarm, the petitioner fled away.

Subsequently, when the informant made a complaint to the father of the petitioner, both petitioner and his father assaulted the informant and her mother-in-law and also snatched her golden Mangal Sutra and ear-rings.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case due to land dispute between the parties. Learned counsel further submits that both the parties are agnates and co-sharers and petitioner happens to be the nephew of the informant. Learned counsel for the petitioner also submits that petitioner has got no criminal antecedents and the injury caused to the informant has been found simple in nature.

5. Having regard to the submissions made by the parties and taking into consideration the material on record and the fact that parties are aganates and there is land dispute between them, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
