ORAL ORDER

2 06-04-2021 The matter has been taken up for hearing on-line because of COVID-19 pandemic restrictions.

The petitioner claims to be the widow of one Chhatri Dushadh, who was a freedom fighter and was getting pension under the freedom fighters pension scheme. It is the petitioner's case that the said Chhatri Dushadh died on 01.01.2006 and she, being his widow, is entitled to grant of pension under the said scheme.

The petitioner has described her age to be 65 years in the cause title of the application as well as in the affidavit portion. From her voter's I.D. card, a copy of which is there on record, it can be seen that the petitioner has been described as the wife of Chhatri Paswan and not Chhatri Dushadh, who was freedom fighter pension holder. The petitioner's age was 25 years as on 01.01.2003. In the light of the entry in the voter's I.D. card, as on date, the petitioner's age would be 43 years. The petitioner has apparently misrepresented before this Court by giving wrong description of her age, which is evident.

Further, the petitioner is claiming her entitlement to the pension 15 years after the said freedom fighters pension holder died in 2006.

This application, in the Court's opinion, is frivolous and is accordingly dismissed.
