ORAL ORDER

2 09-04-2021 Learned counsel for the petitioners is directed to remove the defects, as pointed out by the office, within a period of four weeks.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned
A.P.P. for the State through Virtual mode.

The petitioners are apprehending their arrest in a case for the offence registered under Sections 436, 504 and 506/34 of the I.P.C.

The prosecution story, in brief, is that 29.05.2020 at about 10.00 P.M. when the informant came out side of her hut for deification, in the meantime, petitioners torched her hut due to which, food grains and other domestic utilities were burnt. They also threatened her to took her on fire and grab her whole land. In the alleged crime, she also sustained burn injury on her arm.

It has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that the petitioners have got no criminal antecedent. There is no allegation of tampering with the witnesses alleged against the petitioners. The petitioners have falsely been implicated in the present case. The allegation in respect of offence under Section 436 of the I.P.C. is denied by the petitioners. The present case has been instituted only for the purpose of false implication of the petitioners due to previous enmity between the parties.

On behalf of the learned counsel for the State, it has been submitted that the petitioners are named in the F.I.R.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, let the petitioners above named, in the event of arrest or surrender before the learned court below within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) only each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned A.C.J.M.-Ist, Bagaha, West Champaran, in connection with Chautarava P.S. Case No. 184 of 2020, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
