As per allegation in the FIR, the shop of the informant was looted and mobile phone etc worth Rs. 4.5 lakh were stolen. It is further stated that the theft was recorded in the CCTV footage.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the name of the petitioner transpired in the confessional statement of co-accused Ashok Paswan made before the police and the said Ashok Paswan has been enlarged on bail. So far as this petitioner is concerned, the allegation of recovery of stolen mobile etc. from his possession is false and concocted.
