ORAL ORDER

2 17-04-2021 Learned counsel for the petitioner is directed to remove the defects, as pointed out by the office, within a period of four weeks.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
A.P.P. for the State through Virtual mode.

The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in a case for the offence registered under Sections 302 and 201/34 of the I.P.C.

The prosecution story, in brief, is that on 04.05.2020 at about 6.00 O'clock, the husband of the informant after receiving several calls on his Mobile Phone went out side of his house by saying to his wife that he is going to his villager Ram Vinay Sah but he did not return. In course of search, she came to know in a village that a dead body was seen in Garbhua Semara

Parsa Choti Nahar and one Motorcycle was also there. When the informant with family members went there she saw the dead body of her husband. The informant suspected that Ram Vinay Sah and his associates might have killed her husband.

It has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has got no criminal antecedent. There is no allegation of tampering with the witnesses alleged against the petitioner. The petitioner has falsely been implicated in the present case. The name of the petitioner has transpired in the present case merely on the basis of suspicion. Except for this, there is no other substantive evidence to suggest the implication of the petitioner in the present case. There is no eye witness to the alleged occurrence.

On behalf of the learned counsel for the State, it has been submitted that the petitioner is named in the F.I.R.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, let the petitioner above named, in the event of arrest or surrender before the learned court below within a period of eight weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) only with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned C.J.M. West Champaran (Bettiah), in connection with Chanpatia (Sirisia O.P.) Case No. 199 of 2020, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
