The petitioner apprehends her arrest in connection with Masaurhi P.S. Case No.684 of 2019 registered under Sections 304(B) and 201/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The accusation is that the marriage of the deceased Kanchan Devi, the daughter of the informant Suresh Mistri, was performed in the year 2017 with Nitish Kumar, son of Lavkush

Mistri, of village-Garihara, P.S. Masaurhi, District-Patna. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is the Gotni of the deceased, the daughter of the informant, and on the date of the occurrence, the petitioner had gone to her Maika on the occasion of Raksha Bandhan. Further submission is that the petitioner, who has three children, has no criminal antecedent and has falsely been implicated in this case. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted at the Bar that Nitish Kumar, the husband of the deceased, the daughter of the informant, was apprehended by the police on the next date of the occurrence, i.e., on 19.09.2019 and since then he is in custody.
