CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SATYAVRAT VERMA
ORAL ORDER

4 02-11-2021 Heard Shri Sanjay Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner, Shri Pankaj Kumar, learned counsel for the informant and Shri Ravindra Kumar, learned A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioner is seeking anticipatory bail in connection with Mahila P.S. Case No. 57 of 2020 instituted for the offences under Sections 323, 498A, 504, 506 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner, at the outset, submits that petitioner is the husband and is a person with clean antecedent. Without going into the merits of the case, the learned counsel for the petitioner agrees that the petitioner is willing to take his wife back and the wife is also willing to go back to her matrimonial home.

Considering the aforesaid submission jointly made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the informant, the petitioner is directed to surrender in the learned court below on 25.11.2021 when the learned court below shall release the petitioner on provisional anticipatory bail for a period of three months on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties and simultaneously will issue notice to the Opposite Party No. 2. On her appearance, the Court below will bring to the notice of the Opposite Party No. 2 the submission made by the learned counsel for the informant that she is willing to resume her conjugal life with the petitioner. If the petitioner takes the O.P. No. 2 back as wife, the learned court below will again call both of them after a year to verify as to whether the petitioner and the O.P. No. 2 are living happily or not. In the event, the O.P. No. 2 files an application before the learned court below alleging that proper treatment is not meted out to her and she is being harassed, the learned court below will issue notice to the petitioner and after verifying the allegation, will be at liberty to cancel the bail bond of the petitioner. But after a year if both of them are living together happily, the provisional bail granted to the petitioner shall be confirmed.
