Learned counsel for the petitioners is permitted to remove defect(s), as pointed out by the office, if any, within a period of four weeks from today.

This application for anticipatory bail arises out of Bairiya P.S. Case No. 270 of 2020 for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 341, 323, 324, 307, 504 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code.

Vide order dated 06.09.2021, this anticipatory bail application on behalf of petitioner no.2, above named, has been dismissed as withdrawn as he has been arrested by the police.

It is submitted by the petitioners that the injury report of the informant namely, Satish Kumar Das, shows that he has sustained grievous injury caused by hard and blunt substance and the author of those injuries is Khokhan Biswan @ Khokan Kumar, petitioner no.2, who has already been arrested by the Police.

It is further submitted that the petitioner nos. 1 and 3 are said to have assaulted the informant with knife but there is no knife injury upon the informant.

Learned counsel for the informant has appeared and vehemently opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner nos. 1 and 3 but he has not been able to make submissions in absence of injury report or any other materials.

Considering the submissions advanced by learned counsel for the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner nos. 1 and 3.
