CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHUTOSH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2 17-12-2021 Heard the counsel for the parties.

The petitioner seeks bail in anticipation of her arrest in connection with Parsa Bazar P.S. Case No. 293 of 2020, dated 09.08.2020, instituted for the offences under Sections 147, 149, 341, 323, 504 and 302 of the Indian Penal Code.

The brother-in-law of the deceased has lodged the F.I.R. alleging that while he was at the house of the deceased, all the accused persons including the petitioner came and assaulted the deceased by means of lathi, as a result of which he was hospitalized and later, during the course of treatment, he died.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioner that though she has been named as one of the assailants of the deceased, but the background facts clearly reveal that she has falsely been implicated in this case. In fact, there was a dispute between the deceased and the husband of the petitioner with respect to fixing of electric pole. In that dispute, the deceased died. However, taking advantage of this death and because of old enmity between the parties, all the family members of Raj Deo Paswan, who is the husband of the petitioner, have been made accused. Even children of the family have not been spared.

Aforesaid Raj Deo Paswan has been granted bail after remaining in custody for a longtime.

Considering the aforesaid background facts of the case, the petitioner, in the event of her arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks, is directed to be released on bail on her furnishing bail-bonds in the sum of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Addl. Sessions Judge-XVI, Patna in connection with Parsa Bazar P.S. Case No. 293 of 2020, subject to the conditions laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.

The application stands allowed.
