Appearance :

For the Petitioner/s : Mr.Parashuram Singh, Advocate
For the Respondent/s : Mr. S.D. Yadav, AAG 9

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE P. B. BAJANTHRI
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 01-12-2021

Heard learned counsels for respective parties.

In the instant petition, petitioner has prayed for the following reliefs:-

“(i) To issue an appropriate writ/order/direction in the nature of mandamus to command the respondents to transfer the petitioner from Primary Health Centre, Saravhadi to Primary Health Centre Islampur (Home Centre) taking the petitioner’s unhealthy situation and her husband as the victim of Peptic Ulcer Chronic disease into account.

(ii) Respondents concerned be directed to look into the petitioner’s grievances regarding poor health and her husband being victim of peptic ulcer disease.

(iii) The Respondents’ act of not allowing the prayer of the petitioner of transferring her from Saravhadi to home Centre Islampur be declared as highly arbitrary, illegal and an act played as a dirty gimmick only to defeat the genuine and legal right of the petitioner.

(iv) Erring respondents be sternly dealt with for their misdeed, misdemeanour and defying act done on extraneous consideration.

(v) To allow any other relief or reliefs to which the petitioner is found entitled in the facts and circumstances of the case.”

Learned counsel for the respondents on instruction submitted that the petitioner has completed her tenure at Islampur before posting at Saravhadi Primary Health Centre, therefore, the petitioner is not entitled to re-transfer at Islampur Primary Health Centre.

In the light of these facts and circumstances, the present petition stands dismissed.
