CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY
ORAL ORDER

3 11-08-2021 Heard learned counsel for the parties through video conferencing.

The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered under section 307 and other sections of the Indian Penal Code.

As per allegations in the FIR, the accused persons including the petitioner herein are stated to have abused and assaulted the informant and others. It is stated that the petitioner threw acid on the nephew of the informant causing injuries.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the allegations as levelled in the FIR are false and concocted. There is case and counter case between the parties. From perusal of the injury report of Prabhu Prasad it transpires that he also has sharp cutting injury which is attributable to co-accused Dhruv Prasad who has been enlarged on bail. The petitioner is in custody since 17.11.2020 and has no criminal antecedent.

Heard learned APP for the State.

On perusal of the injury report of Prabhu Prasad it transpires that the allegations of acid being thrown by the petitioner herein is substantiated by the injury report with the nature of injury having been found to be grievous. The Court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail and the application is rejected.

Liberty is granted to the petitioner to renew his prayer for bail on completing one year in custody.

(Partha Sarthy, J)
