punishable under sections 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the prosecution case, the petitioner and other co-accused persons started abusing the informant, which was objected by his wife. Thereafter, the petitioner hit the husband of the informant on his head by a brick as a result of which he suffered injury on his head and died.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there is no allegation of hurling repeated blow and the incident took place on the spur of moment without previous deliberation.
There is a case and counter case. Petitioner has got clean antecedent as stated in paragraph 3 of the bail petition.

Petitioner is in custody since 14.6.2020.

Learned counsel for the State and the informant oppose the prayer for bail and submit that there is specific allegation against the petitioner that he hit the husband of the informant on his head by a brick as a result of which he suffered injury on his head and died.

In view of the nature of accusation and gravity of offence, prayer for bail of the petitioner is refused.
