The learned advocate appearing for the State places the case diary before us.

Having heard the learned advocates and considering the materials in the case diary, the nature of allegations, we are of the opinion that custodial detention of the petitioner is not necessary.

Accordingly, we allow the application for anticipatory bail and direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only), with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.
