The facts of the case are not in dispute.

The claim was filed under Section 163A of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988. Mr. Krishanu Banik, learned Counsel for the appellants/claimants submit that the learned Tribunal committed an error in law while assessing the monthly income of the deceased as Rs.2,000/- per month instead and in place of Rs.3,000/- per month.

This Court is also inclined to accept the submissions made on behalf of the appellants on the above points. Accordingly, the impugned award is modified and recalculated as stated hereinafter.

Monthly Income	Rs. 3,000/-
Annual Income (3,000 X 12)	Rs. 36,000/-
Less 1/3rd deduction (personal Expenses)	Rs. 12,000/-
Loss of annual dependency	Rs. 24,000/-
Use Multiplier (16) (24,000 X 16)	Rs. 3,84,000/-
Add: General Damages	Rs. 9,500/-
Total Compensation	Rs. 3,93,500/-

Mr. Banik acknowledges that his clients have already received a sum of Rs. 2,70,500/- together with interest that has been awarded by the learned Court below and paid by the Insurance Company. Therefore, the differential amount of Rs. 1,23,000/- together with 6% interest on and from the date of filing the claim petition till the payment, shall be paid to the claimants by the respondent Insurance Company in the same manner and proportion as decided by the Court below within 45 days from the date of receipt of the particulars of their bank account. Details need to be supplied by their learned Counsel to the learned Counsel for the Insurance Company.

It is made clear that the payment shall be made directly through NEFT/RTGS to the bank accounts of the claimants/appellants.

With the aforesaid directions, the instant appeal being F.M.A. 405 of 2010 shall stand disposed of.

In view of disposal of the appeal, all connected applications, if any, are also disposed of. The concerned Department is directed to trace out the applications and tag with this appeal.

LCR, if any may be returned back to the Court below.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties, upon compliance of all formalities, on priority basis.
