Akher Mondal
Vs.

The New India Assurance Co. Ltd. & Anr.

Mr. Muktakesh Das

...for the Appellant/Claimant.

Mr. Rajesh Singh

...for the Respondents/Insurance Co.

It appears to this Court that the instant appeal has been filed out of statutory period. Being satisfied with the cause for delay in filing the instant appeal and since counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents/Insurance Company did not oppose, this Court condones the delay in filing the instant appeal and the instant appeal is taken up for hearing.

This appeal has been filed by the appellant/claimant against the judgment and award dated June 22, 2016 passed by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal Judge, Additional District Judge, 3rd Court, Nadia at Krishnagar in M.A.C. Case No. 90 of 2014.

Mr. Muktakesh Das, counsel appearing on behalf of the appellants/claimants submits that the matter has been settled with the Insurance Company and the Insurance Company is now required to pay a further sum of Rs.4,00,000/-. He further submits that he does not wish to pursue this appeal and withdraw the same. It is further submitted that the awarded sum has already been paid to the appellant/claimant.

In the light of the above submission, the respondents/Insurance Company is directed to pay the further sum of Rs.4,00,000/- to the appellant/claimant's bank account directly within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of the bank details in the manner and proportion as provided in the award.

The appellant/claimant is directed to provide his bank details to the Insurance Company within a period of two weeks from date.

With the aforesaid directions, the instant appeal is disposed of.

There shall be no order as to costs.

In view of the disposal of this appeal, connected application, if any, is also disposed of.

The Registry is directed to send down the lower court records at once, if received by this time.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties, upon compliance of all formalities, on priority basis.
