W.P.A.2023 of 2021
Shyamali Pradhan
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Goutam Kumar Maity
...for the petitioner.

No one appears for the State when the matter is called on for hearing.

Affidavit of service filed in Court today is kept with the record.

The father of the petitioner was an Assistant Teacher of a Primary School, who died on 30.10.1982. The mother of the petitioner died on 10.09.2015. The petitioner had completed all pension-related. The pension payment order was issued on 24.01.2020. However, the concerned authorities delayed and released the arrear pension amount on 27.02.2020. The petitioner herein seeks interest to be paid on the arrear pension amount for the interim period of delay in receipt of the arrear pension amount.

There is a considerable delay in filing of the writ petition, which the petitioner seeks to justify by stating that there is no statutory period of limitation and neither parties have suffered due to this delay. It is the submission of the petitioner that accordingly the petition should be allowed. The petitioner relies upon an order in W.P.No. 6649(W) of 2019(Padma Nath Vs. State of West Bengal & Ors.) of the co-ordinate Bench in support of his submission

In view of the above and after hearing the learned Counsel for the petitioner, I direct the Director of Pension, Provident Fund and Group Insurance,

Government of West Bengal as also the concerned Treasury Officer to pay interest to the writ petitioner @ 8% per annum on the arrear pension amount calculated from 11.9.2015 till the date of actual payment. Such payment is to be made within a period of eight weeks from the date of communication of this order.

The writ petition is disposed of, however, no order as to costs.

Since no affidavit is called for, the allegations contained in the writ petition are deemed to have been denied by the respondents.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be made available to the parties upon compliance with the requisite formalities.
