In Re: An application under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1973.

In the matter of:-

Bijay Kumar Agarwal @ Bijoy
Kumar Agarwal & ors.

... Petitioners

Mr. Koustav Bagchi

... for the petitioners

Ms. Sukanya Bhattacharya,
Ms. Manisha Sharma

...for the State

Mr. Aniruddha Bhattacharyya,
Mr. Arup Sarkar

Parties are represented through their learned advocates, the names of whom are shown above at the beginning of this ordersheet.

Ms. Bhattacharya, learned advocate representing the State submits that the police after investigation has already submitted charge-sheet making out a case under Sections 418/420/34 of the Indian Penal Code read with Sections 63/69 of the Copyrights Act, 1957.

Mr. Koustav Bagchi, learned advocate representing the petitioners submits that mutually disputes have already been settled outside the Court and the C.R.A.N. application has accordingly been filed, which is also listed today, and there is sufficient reflection in the C.R.A.N. application, vide paragraph “6” about the mutual settlement already effected between the parties.

Mr. Aniruddha Bhattacharyya, learned advocate representing the de facto complainant/opposite party no.2 submits that the disputes between the parties have already been settled and the de facto complainant has already received the money, stated to have been cheated.

Having considered the rival submission of the parties, it appears that the disputes have been settled mutually outside the Court and peace has restored between the parties.

When there has been settlement between the parties, the Court should not stand on the way. With the mutual settlement, there is further hardly anything left requiring any adjudication from this Court.

Pending G.R. Case No.548 of 2016 stands quashed. The offence complained of under Sections 418/420/34 of the Indian Penal Code read with Sections 63/69 of the Copyrights Act stands compounded.

The instant revisional application and connected application are also disposed of.

All parties shall act in terms of copy of this order downloaded from the official website of this Court.

Urgent Xerox certified copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties, subject to compliance with all requisite formalities.
