Santosh Kumar Mandal
Vs
The State West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Sudip Ghosh,
... For the Petitioner.
Ms. Anima Das Chakraborty,
...For the State.

Affidavit of service filed in Court today is kept with the record.

The petitioner was a Teacher of a Primary School, North 24 Parganas, and he retired from service on 31.01.2006. The first pension payment order was issued on 31.03.2006. Under the ROPA Rules, 2009 there was revision of the pensionary and gratuity amount payable to the petitioner. The revised pension payment order was issued on 23.04.2012 and the revised gratuity was disbursed on 30.06.2012 in terms of ROPA, 2009. The petitioner claims interest on delayed payment of the revised arrear pension and gratuity.

I have heard learned counsel for both parties and I have considered the orders passed by this court in similar facts. It is settled law that retired employee is entitled to some amount of interest on delayed payment of revised arrear pension and gratuity.

There is a considerable delay in filing of the writ petition, which the petitioner seeks to justify by stating that there is no statutory period of limitation and neither of the parties has suffered due to this delay. It is the submission of the petitioner that accordingly the petition should be allowed. The petitioner relies upon an order in W.P. No. 17557 (W) of 2017 (Narayan Chandra Saha Vs. State of West Bengal & Ors.) wherein a co-ordinate Bench had relied upon the Supreme Court judgement in the case of Union of India Vs. Tarsem Singh, reported in (2008) 8 S.C.C. 648 on the issue of limitation relating to payment or re-fixation of pay or pension wherein the Apex Court had held that relief may be granted in spite of delay as it does not affect the rights of the third party.

In view of the aforesaid, I direct the Director of Pension, Provident Fund and Group Insurance, Government of West Bengal as also the concerned Treasury Officer to pay interest to the writ petitioner @8% per annum on the revised gratuity and revised arrear pension amount calculated from 19.05.2009 till actual date of payment.

Such payment is to be made within a period of eight weeks from the date of communication of this order to the concerned authorities.

Since no affidavits have been invited, the allegations contained in the writ petition are deemed not to have been admitted by the respondents.

The writ petition is disposed of, however, no order as to costs.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be made available to the parties upon compliance with the requisite formalities.
