Petitioners seek anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners were falsely implicated. There is a counter case.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the court to the statements recorded under Section 161 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and to the injury report.

In answer to the query from court learned advocate appearing for the State submits that the police submitted charge sheet before the jurisdictional court.

Considering the injury report and considering the fact that the police submitted charge sheet, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on anticipatory bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand

Only) each with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioners shall appear before the Court below and pray for regular bail within four weeks from date.
