W.P.A.4216 of 2021
Binapani Panua
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Tamal Taru Panda
... For the Petitioner.

Ms. Bineeta Bhattacharjee
...for the State.

Affidavit of service filed in Court today is kept with the record.

The husband of the petitioner was an employee of the School in question, who retired from service on 30.07.2012 and died on 18.09.2020. The husband of the petitioner had completed all pension-related formalities. However, the concerned authorities delayed and released his arrear pension on 12.11.2013. The petitioner herein seeks interest to be paid on the arrear pension amount for the interim period of delay in receipt of the arrear pension amount.

There is a considerable delay in filing of the writ petition, which the petitioner seeks to justify by stating that there is no statutory period of limitation and neither parties have suffered due to this delay. It is the submission of the petitioner that accordingly the petition should be allowed.

The petitioner relies upon an order in W.P.No. 17557(W) of 2017(Narayan Chandra Saha Vs. State of West Bengal & Ors.) wherein a co-ordinate Bench of this court had relied upon a Supreme Court judgement in the case of Union of India Vs. Tarsem Singh, reported in (2008) 8 S.C.C.648 on the issue of limitation relating to payment or re-fixation of pay or pension wherein the Apex Court had held that relief may be granted in spite of delay as it does not affect the rights of the third party.

In view of the above and after hearing the learned Counsel for both the parties, I direct the Director of Pension, Provident Fund and Group Insurance, Government of West Bengal as also the concerned Treasury Officer to pay interest to the writ petitioner @ 8% per annum on arrear pension amount calculated from 01.08.2012 till the date of actual payment. Such payment is to be made within a period of eight weeks from the date of communication of this order.

The writ petition is, accordingly, disposed of.

Since no affidavit is called for, the allegations contained in the writ petition are deemed to have been denied.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be made available to the parties upon compliance with the requisite formalities.
