Mr. Debjit Mukherjee
Mrs. Susmita Chatterjee
Mr. Kaustav Bhattacharya
.... For applicant

Mr. Sandipan Banerjee
Mr. Ankit Sureka
.... For alleged contemner

Mr. Banerjee, learned advocate appears on behalf of alleged contemner and files affidavit of compliance. In it is disclosed reasoned order and revised bill. He tenders unqualified apology on behalf of his client for delayed compliance. Mrs. Chatterjee, learned advocate appears on behalf of applicant and submits, her client seeks direction for payment of bill amount in installment.

There can be no order in contempt jurisdiction apart from the matter of compliance or cognizance of contempt. As such, Court is satisfied there has been compliance and the apology is accepted. Applicant is at liberty to apply to the Corporation for relief of installments, to liquidate the bill amount.

The contempt application is, thus, disposed of.
