C.R.R. No.592 of 2012
(Via Video Conference)

Saukat Ali Gayen & Anr.
Versus
The State of West Bengal & Anr.

In Re: An application under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

Mr. Arijit Ganguly,
Mr. Sanjib Kr. Dan.
...for the State.

The revisional application was preferred for quashing the FIR relating to Deganga Police Station Case No.490 dated 29.08.2011.

Mr. Arijit Ganguly, learned advocate appearing for the State has submitted a report of the Inspector-in-Charge of Deganga Police Station, which reflects that after completion of investigation, charge-sheet was submitted on or about 05.11.2011.

Let the report be kept with the record.

Having regard to the fact that the petitioner has only enclosed the application under Section 156(3) of the Code of Criminal Procedure and the charge-sheet for consideration regarding the maintainability of the police station case, I am of the view that the same has been made at a premature stage. However, the petitioners will be at liberty to agitate the points canvassed in the revisional application after the documents under Section 207 of the Code of Criminal Procedure are made available to them during further proceedings of the case before the trial court. Accordingly, no interference is required in the instant case.

As such, CRR 592 of 2012 is dismissed.

Pending application, if any, is consequently disposed of.

Interim order, if any, is hereby vacated.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
