This application for anticipatory bail has been filed apprehending arrest in connection with Narendrapur P.S. Case No. 511/2020 dated 20.6.2020 under Sections 498A/307/326 of the Indian Penal Code and under Sections 3/ 4 of the DP Act and adding Section 304B of the IPC.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that his clients are standing on the same footing as the husband of the victim who is on bail and some other co-accused who are on anticipatory bail. The said submission has not been opposed by the learned counsel for the State.

In view of the above, the petitioners are entitled to grant relief under Section 438 Cr.P.C.

Accordingly, in the event of arrest the petitioners shall be released on bail subject to satisfaction of conditions under Section 438(2) of Cr.P.C., 1973 and upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the IO, subject to condition that the petitioners shall appear before the trial Court on every date of hearing until further orders and shall not intimidate witnesses or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever and on further condition that the petitioners shall not enter the jurisdiction of the PS except for the purposes of investigation and attending Court proceedings and shall provide the addresses where they will reside while on bail to the Investigating Officer as well as the Court below and shall report to the Officer-in-Charge of the concerned Police Station within whose jurisdiction they will reside once in a week until further orders. The petitioners shall surrender their passports to the IO and if they do not possess passports shall submit affidavits to that effect before the IO.

In the event the petitioners fail to appear before the Trial Court without any justifiable cause, the trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel their bail in accordance with law without further reference to this Court.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, disposed of.

The parties shall act in terms of the copy of the order downloaded from the official website of this court.
