W.P.A. 6630 of 2021

Sk. Khalilur Rahman
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Amit Kumar Bayen
.....For the Petitioner

Affidavit-of-service filed in Court today is kept with the record.

The petitioner was an Assistant Teacher of a Primary School, who retired from service on 31.08.1992. The petitioner's had completed all pension –related formalities prior to his retirement. The pension payment order issued on 31.01.2002. However, the concerned authorities delayed and released the arrear pension amount on 28.02.2002. The petitioner herein seeks interest to be paid on the arrear pension amount for the interim period of delay in receipt of the arrear pension amount.

There is a considerable delay in filing of the writ petition, which the petitioner seeks to justify by stating that there is no statutory period of limitation and neither parties have suffered due to this delay. It is the submission of the petitioner that accordingly the petition should be allowed. The petitioner relies upon an Judgement order in W.P. No. 6649 (W) of 2019 (Padma Nath Vs. State of West Bengal & ors.) of the co-ordinate Bench in support of his submission.

In view of the above and after hearing the learned Counsel for the petitioner, I direct the Director of Pension, Provident Fund and Group Insurance, Government of West Bengal as also the concerned Treasury Officer to pay interest to the petitioner @ 8% per annum on the arrear pension amount calculated from 01.09.1992 till the date of actual payment. Such payment is to be made within a period of eight weeks from the date of communication of this order.

This writ petition is accordingly disposed of, however, no order as to costs.

Since no affidavit is called for, the allegations made in the writ petition are deemed to have been denied.

Urgent photostat certified copy, if applied for, be given to the parties on urgent basis.
