Dipti Rani Mukherjee
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Biswajit Mal

.....For the Petitioner

Ms. Mita Biswas

..for the State

Affidavit-of-service filed in Court today is kept with the record.

The petitioner's husband was an approved Assistant Teacher of a Primary School, who retired from service on 30.11.1994 and died on 28.12.2019. The petitioners had completed his pension-related formalities prior to his retirement. However, the concerned authorities delayed and released the arrear pension amount and gratuity amount on 19.09.2002. The petitioner herein seeks interest to be paid on the arrear pension amount and gratuity amount for the interim period of delay in receipt of the gratuity amount and arrear pension amount.

There is a considerable delay in filing of the writ petition, which the petitioner seeks to justify by stating that there is no statutory period of limitation and neither parties have suffered due to this delay. It is the submission of the petitioner that accordingly the petition should be allowed. The petitioner relies upon an order in W.P. 17557 (W) of 2017 (Narayan Chandra Saha Vs. State of West Bengal & Ors.) wherein a co-ordinate bench had relied upon the Supreme Court judgement in the case of Union of India Vs. Tarsem Singh, reported in (2008) 8 S.C.C. 648 on the issue of limitation relating to payment on re-fixation of pay or pension wherein the Apex Court had held that relief may be granted in spite of delay as it does not affect the rights of the third party.

In view of the above and after hearing the learned Counsel for the parties, I direct the Director of Pension, Provident Fund and Group Insurance, Government of West Bengal as also the concerned Treasury Officer to pay interest to the petitioner @ 8% per annum on the gratuity amount and arrear pension calculated from 01.12.1994 till the date of payment. Such payment is to be made within a period of eight weeks from the date of communication of this order.

This writ petition is disposed of, however, no order as to costs.

Since no affidavit-in-opposition is called for, the allegations made in the writ petition are deemed to have been denied.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties on urgent basis.
