Ajit Kumar Dhang
Versus
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Biswajit Mal.

...For the petitioner.

Ms. Sucharita Ray.

..For the State.

The affidavit-of-service filed by the learned Advocate for the petitioner in Court today be taken on record.

The learned Advocate for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was a State Government employee and he retired from service on 30.04.2014. Pension Payment Order was issued in favour of the petitioner on 10.09.2014 and the gratuity and arrear pension amount was released on 02.12.2014.

Although the petitioner was entitled to payment of pensionary benefit, the same was not paid. By representing this writ petition, the petitioner prays for an order on the respondents to award interest on delayed payment of gratuity and arrear pension.

I have heard the learned Advocate for the petitioner and have also considered the orders passed by different Hon'ble Judges on the writ petitions involving similar issues.

In view thereof, this writ petition stands disposed of with a direction upon the respondents and particularly the concerned Treasury Officer to pay to the petitioner interest on gratuity and arrear pension amount @ 9% per annum from the date of death till the date of actual payment within 16 weeks from the date of service of an authenticated copy of this order failing which, additional interest @ 2% per annum shall be payable to the petitioner.

There will be no order as to costs.

Urgent certified copy of this order, if applied for, shall be given to the parties as expeditiously as possible on compliance of all necessary formalities.
