The allegation is under Sections 498A/326/307/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The petitioners are the daughter of the married sister-in-law and the married sister-in-law respectively of the complainant victim.

We are told that the complainant has reunited with the husband and they are living together. The de facto complainant is represented before us.

In view of the above, we are of the opinion that custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required, who in any event reside separately from the complainant.

Accordingly, in the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and shall abide by the conditions laid down in Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure until further orders.

In case the petitioners fail to adhere to any of the conditions mentioned in Section 438(2) of the Code, the learned Court below shall be entitled to cancel the anticipatory bail without further reference to this Court.

The application for anticipatory bail being C.R.M. 2824 of 2021 is, thus, allowed.

All parties shall act in terms of server copy of this order downloaded from the official website of this Court.
