

22.03.2021
Sl. No. 84
srm

C.O. No. 752 of 2021

Kousik Kumar Pradhan @ Koushik Pradhan

Vs.

Nabamita Pradhan (De)

Mrs. Paromita Malakar (Dutta)

...for the Petitioner.

This revisional application has been filed seeking expeditious disposal of an application for visitation filed by the husband/father of the child under Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure in a proceeding being Misc. Case No.30 of 2020, pending before the learned Additional District Judge, Fast Track 3rd Court at Howrah.

Act VIII (Misc. Case No.30 of 2020) is a proceeding for custody of the minor child. The petitioner/father has filed an application for visitation which has not yet been disposed of.

It is submitted that the wife/mother of the child has also not filed written objection as yet.

Under such circumstances, this revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned Court below to dispose of the application for interim visitation within a period of two months from the next date fixed, upon affording the opposite party/mother, an opportunity to file the written objection and to contest the same. It is made clear that keeping in view the nature of the reliefs sought for in the said application, the time limit fixed hereinabove is peremptory.

This Court has not gone into the contentions of the petitioner or merits of the case and the learned Court below shall hear the application on its own merits and dispose of the same in accordance with law.

The learned Advocate-on-record for the petitioner is directed to serve a copy of this revisional application upon the opposite party as also the learned Advocate for the opposite party in the Court below along with a server copy of this order immediately.

The parties are to act on the basis of the server copy of this order.

The revisional application is disposed of.

There will be, however, no order as to costs.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties on priority basis.

(Shampa Sarkar, J.)