The allegation against the petitioners is under Sections 467/468/471/420 of the Indian Penal Code. Besides learned counsel for the petitioners and the State, the defacto-complainant is also present in Court.

It is submitted on behalf of the defacto-complainant that the dispute between the parties has been amicably settled and he has instructions not to proceed with the present complaint. An affidavit to that effect has been sworn by the defacto-complainant which is on record.

In view of the fact that the matter has been amicably settled between the parties, we are inclined to hold that there is no necessity for custodial interrogation of the petitioners and they may be granted anticipatory bail.

The petitioners shall abide by the conditions laid down in Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
