Narendranath Chatterjee

vs

The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Sudip Sarkar

Mr. Sandip Ghosh

... for the petitioner

Mr. Rezaul Hossain

... for the State

Affidavit of service filed in Court today be kept with the record.

The petitioner was a College Laboratory Attendant and he retired from service on 28.02.2014. Pension payment order was issued on 25.04.2014. The grievance of the petitioner is that the gratuity and arrear pension amount was disbursed to him only on 01.10.2014. The petitioner claims interest on delayed payment of the gratuity amount and arrear pension.

I have heard learned counsel appearing for the parties and considered the orders passed by this court in similar facts.

It is settled law that the right of a retired employee to get his retiral dues on the date of attaining superannuation is a valuable right which accrues in his favour on the date of his attaining superannuation. Further, gratuity and pension are no more considered to be a bounty to be handed out by the State at its whim. An employee has a statutory right to receive gratuity and pension upon retirement. If payment of such gratuity and pension is delayed the retired employee is surely entitled to get some interest for such delayed payment.

In the present case, it was the bounden duty of the State to disburse the gratuity and pension amount on the due date. If it has failed to do so and has released such amount after unexplained delay, it is obliged to pay interest to the retired employee. Pension and gratuity are welfare provisions aimed at maintaining the life of a retired employee and his/her dependents. This is compensatory in nature.

In view of the aforesaid, I direct the Director of Public Instruction, Government of West Bengal as also the concerned Treasury Officer to pay interest to the writ petitioner at the rate of 5% per annum on the gratuity and arrear pension calculated on and from the date of retirement till date of actual payment.

Such payment is to be made within eight weeks from the date of communication of the certified copy of this order to the concerned authorities.

Since no affidavit in opposition has been invited, the allegations contained in the writ petition are deemed not be admitted.

W.P.A. 9243 of 2021 is disposed of.

There will be no order as to costs.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order be supplied to the parties, if applied for, as early as possible.
