[Kunjabala Jalani -Vs- The State of West Bengal & Ors.]

Mr. Tamal Taru Panda
... .. for the petitioner

Despite service of notice, none appears on behalf of the State-respondents. Affidavit of service filed in Court today be kept with the record.

The learned Advocate for the petitioner submits that the husband of the petitioner was a Panchayat employee who died-in-harness on 24.08.2002. Pension Order was issued in favour of the petitioner on 20.07.2005 and the arrear pension of the petitioner was released on 30.12.2005.

Although the petitioner was entitled to payment of pensionary benefit from the date of his retirement, the same was not paid. By presenting this writ petition, the petitioner prays for an order on the respondents to award interest on delayed payment of arrear pension.

I have heard the learned Advocate for the petitioner and have also considered the orders passed by different Hon'ble Judges on the writ petitions involving similar issues.

In view thereof, this writ petition stands disposed of with a direction upon the respondents and particularly the concerned Treasury Officer to pay to the petitioner interest on arrear pension @ 9% per annum from the date of death of the petitioner's husband till the date of actual payment within 16 weeks from the date of service of an authenticated copy of this order failing which, additional interest @ 2% per annum shall be payable to the petitioner.

There shall be no order as to costs.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties on usual undertaking.
