The grievance of the petitioners is that being dissatisfied by the compensation granted to them upon acquisition of their land by the State authorities and utilisation of the same by the National Highway Authority of India, the petitioners approached the Arbitrator under Section 3(G) (5) of the National Highways Act, 1956. The arbitral award was passed on 1st June, 2017. The petitioners are aggrieved by the said award and pray for enhancement of the same.

It is submitted on behalf of the respondents that the petitioners participated in the proceeding before the Arbitrator and in case of any dissatisfaction against the said award, the remedy of the petitioners lies under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

It is not in dispute that the petitioners approached the Arbitrator under Section 3(G) (5) of the Act of 1956 and participated in the arbitral proceeding by submitting their Statement of Claims. The proceeding has culminated in declaration of award on 1st June, 2017.

According to the petitioners, all the petitioners, except the 3rd and 5th petitioners, have received the compensation amount.

In view of Section 3(G) (6) of the Act of 1956, the petitioners are at liberty to take necessary steps under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 before the appropriate forum.
