CRR 1502 of 2011

In Re: An application under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973

Ms. Debjani Sahu

... For the State

The present revisional application was preferred for quashing the proceedings arising out of Narkeldanga Police Station Case no. 57 of 2011 dated 20.02.2011 under Section 341/224/225/333/353/427/114 of the Indian Penal Code.

The petitioners approached this Court at the earliest stage of the case relying upon certain documents which are not of unimpeachable character.

Records of this revisional application reflected that a Coordinate Bench of this Court on 17.05.2011 directed to continue the investigation but not to submit final report without leave of this Court.

The revisional application is pending for more than 10 years. There is no persuasion having regard to the fact that the investigating agency was directed to continue with the investigation, I am of the view that if the investigating agency has come to a conclusion they would file their report under Section 173 of the Code of Criminal Procedure before the jurisdictional Court and the jurisdictional Court on receipt of the same will proceed with the case in accordance with law.

With the aforesaid observations CRR 1502 of 2011 is disposed of.

Pending application, if any, is consequently disposed of.

Interim order, if any, is hereby vacated.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
