..... for the de facto complainant

Petitioner seeks anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the concerned first information report is a counter-blast to an earlier first information report lodged by the petitioner.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the contents of the case diary.

De facto complainant is represented.

Considering the materials in the case diary and considering the fact that there was no injury report, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further conditions that the petitioner shall meet the investigating officer once in a month until further orders and shall appear before the jurisdictional court and pray for regular bail within a period of four weeks from date.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
