C. O. No. 1192 of 2021
(Via video conference)

Smt. Swarnamaye Mistri
Vs.
Sri Mohit Kumar Mondal

Mr. Ranjit Kumar Roy

... for the petitioner.

In view of the innocuous nature of the order proposed to be passed, no prior service of notice on the opposite party is deemed necessary.

It appears from the materials annexed to the present revisional application under Article 227 of the Constitution of India that the petitioner's suit has been kept pending for an inordinate period of time.

However, in view of the financial and social situation of the petitioner as well as considering her advanced years, C. O. No. 1192 of 2021 is disposed of by requesting the Civil Judge (Junior Division), First Court at Alipore, District- South 24 Parganas, to dispose of Title Suit No. 88 of 2014, pending in the said court, as expeditiously as the business of the said court permits, positively within March 31, 2022, without granting any unnecessary adjournment to any of the parties.

The petitioner shall communicate this order to the court below, as well as to the opposite party and/or the learned advocate appearing for the opposite party in the court below, at the earliest.

The trial court shall act on the communication of the learned advocate for the petitioner and/or a server copy of this order without insisting upon prior production of a certified copy thereof.

There will be no order as to costs.

Urgent photostat certified copies of this order, if applied for, be made available to the parties upon compliance with the requisite formalities.
