Mr. Sudip Ghosh
Mr. Bitasok Banerjee

... .. for the State

The petitioners seek anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate for the petitioners submits that the husband is in detention presently and the petitioners were falsely implicated.

Learned advocate for the State draws the attention of the Court that statement recorded under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the present case and considering the materials in the case diary and gravity of the offence and complicity of the petitioners therein and considering the fact that the husband is still in custody considering the fact that the police has submitted charge sheet, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) each, with two sureties of like amount each one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that they shall appear before the jurisdictional Court on the dates fixed for trial and pray for regular bail within four weeks from date.

The application for anticipatory bail being CRM 4216 of 2021 is thus disposed of.
