... ...For the State

Petitioner is the mother-in-law of the deceased house wife. It is submitted dowry demand was made for the business of the husband who is on regular bail. Investigation is completed.

Learned lawyer appearing for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail.

We have considered the materials on record. The allegations of torture are general and omnibus. Demand for money was for commencing business of the husband of the deceased who is presently on regular bail.

Keeping in view the extent of complicity of the petitioner in the alleged crime and as investigation are complete, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of

Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioner shall appear before the Court below and pray for regular bail within a period of four weeks from date.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
