C.O. 1284 of 2021

Subhendu Naskar Vs.
Mrs. Ramita Naskar (Ranjan)

Mr. Rajdeep Bhattacharya,
Ms. Sevanti Roy.

...for the Petitioner.

The Court is approached under Article 227 of the Constitution of India soliciting a direction to ensure expeditious disposal of a Matrimonial Suit No.3043 of 2017, now pending before the learned Additional District Judge, 8th Court, Alipore, South 24-Paraganas on the ground of long pendency.

Learned Advocate representing the petitioner submits that the matrimonial suit was instituted in the year 2017 and thereafter issues have been framed and the evidence of the plaintiff/husband have been concluded. After the conclusion of the evidence of the husband, the opposite party/wife was called upon to adduce her evidence, but on the ground of adjournments being granted, the case is getting delayed.

In view of the nature of the order proposed to be made, and the point to be addressed by this Court, the Court is of the view that the instant revisional application may be disposed of even without inviting appearance of the opposite party/wife.

Accordingly, service upon the opposite party/wife stands dispensed with.

Learned Court below is directed to dispose of the matrimonial suit as expeditiously as possible, preferably within one year from the date of communication of this order, after providing sufficient opportunity of hearing to either of the parties, but without granting unnecessary adjournment, unless it is extremely unavoidable.

Petitioner is directed to communicate this order to the learned Court below as well as to the opposite party and her learned Advocate appearing in the court below.

With this observation and direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.

Urgent xerox certified copy of this order be given to the parties on usual undertaking.
